

Mining

Photographie :
Parent Géry sur Wikimedia Commons

Strategic metals and minerals supplier

With its expertise in international trading, BITOL has expanded its activities into the mining sector, becoming a major player in the supply of essential metals and minerals.

Diversified portfolio:

- High-quality, responsibly sourced diamonds
- Lithium, a key element for batteries and green technologies
- Zinc, essential for galvanizing and metal alloys
- Gold, a precious metal sought after for its industrial and financial applications

Mining – Mineral Operation

Strategic investments in new mines:

- Zinc mine rehabilitation project in sub-Saharan Africa to meet growing demand

Achievement: 02 field missions (report available)

- Acquisition of a gold mine in Central Africa, to diversify our precious metals offering

Achievement: 01 project feasibility study

- Acquisition of a bauxite mine in Guinea as a JV

Achievement : Negotiation of the partnership

Field mission: site visit and coring

Value-added services

- Traceability and certification of the ethical origin of products
- Integrated logistics from extraction to delivery to ensure reliable supply
- Expert advice on market trends and technological innovations: from studies to the limitation of environmental and social impacts to the rehabilitation of old sites.